PRAYERS OFFERED IN
THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 1978
by
Dr. Albert G. Edwards

Wednesday, May 31, 1978

Great God, lover of our souls and Deliverer of our days, we thank Thee that once again the time has come when the members of the House can embark on joint endeavors for the welfare of our State. For this purpose may they have come with anticipation and not reluctance.

Thou knowest that these are not the only moments of this day that those of these men and women have given to Thee, but especially in these moments may there be on the part of all the heartfelt prayer that as they consult a calendar, cross and subpoena, that Thou wilt enable them when necessary in this place, or in office, or in consultative visits to be —

and thus may it be when the words are history, when the moments are memories, the promises will be made and not broken, and they will glorify and not shame. Amen.

APPENDIX

Thursday, June 1, 1978

O great and good and holy God, we thank Thee that many of us are able to say, "I want for what I've got," but in the midst of our blessed gifts keep us humble by reminding us that we have much for which we do not labor or expect ourselves.

This day and its hours,
The air we breathe,
The sun that warms,
The moon that cools,
These are Thy gifts.

So in the midst of all our efforts keep us mindful of our indebtedness and keep us working as if everything depended on us, and keep us praying as if everything depended on you, O God.

Friday, June 2, 1978

O faithful, friendly, fatherly God, we rejoice again with Thee as we sit on Friday in this place, but now we sit and thankfully say —

PRAYERS OFFERED IN
1978
by
Dr. Albert G. Edwards

Wednesday, May 31, 1978

Great God, Lover of our souls and Determiner of our days, we thank Thee that once again the time has come when the members of the House can embark on joint endeavors for the welfare of our State. For this purpose may they have come with anticipation and not reluctance.

Thou knowest that these are not the only moments of this day that many of these men and women have given to Thee, but especially in these moments may there be on the part of all the heartfelt prayer that as they confront a calendar, known and unknown, that Thou wilt enable them when convened in this place, or in office, or in committee room to be —

frank without being offensive, bold without being belligerent earnest without being implacable, and steadfast without being prudish.

And thus may it be when the weeks are history, when the moments are memories, the memories will bless and not burn, and they will gladden and not torment. Amen.

Thursday, June 1, 1978

O great and good and holy God, we thank Thee that many of us are able to say, "I work for what I've got." But in the midst of our honest pride keep us humble by reminding us that we have much for which we do not labor or expend ourselves:

This day and its hours,
The air we breathe,
The sun that warms,
The breeze that cools,
These are Thy gifts.

So in the midst of all our effort keep us mindful of our indebtedness and keep us working as if everything depended on us, and keep us praying as if everything depended on you. Amen.

Friday, June 2, 1978

O faithful, friendly, fatherly God, we seldom speak with Thee at noon on Friday in this place, but here we are and thankfully so.

We recognize that we are not one in political party,

religious affiliation,
sex or size or shape,
or in race or social standing,

but help the members of this House to see that they can be one in their devotion to Thee,

one in their ambition to serve well
the State of North Carolina and one in their conviction that "except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it."

Amen.

Monday, June 5, 1978

O God, ever present, ever patient, ever loving and forgiving, we confess with shame that it is possible in our relation with Thee to nod but never speak, to acknowledge but never follow

to believe but never trust.

Forgive us for such fringe living, and help us more and more to trust your wisdom, judgment and strength.

In the strong name of Christ we pray, Amen.

Tuesday, June 6, 1978

Great God, without whom nothing is holy, no one good, and no situation hopeful, truly these men and women know that the quest for truth is never an easy path to follow, and the courage to follow the truth is never a virtue easy to possess, but as they struggle to discern and as they summon courage to follow, enable them to remember that their help is One who gave his life for truth, and Who today is honored and worshipped for His conviction and His courage. Amen.

Wednesday, June 7, 1978

Great God, the Water of life and the Bread of life, and who has promised that those who hunger and thirst after righteousness shall be filled, grant unto the members of this House, strength to withstand pressure from the selfish, wisdom to separate the wheat from the chaff of the preaching and prattling of the pious, and a conviction mighty enough to overcome the fear of rebuke, or retaliation or removal.

This we ask of Thee because what we cannot achieve by ourselves we can achieve through Thee. Amen.

Thursday, June 8, 1978

Thankful we are, Almighty God, that we are not one in thought, or opinion, or conviction. How deadly dull life would be if all were of one mind on the social issues of the day.

Earnestly we pray that as these men and women confront one of the great social issues of our State that each will remember that courage is not the absence of fear, but to be shiveringly afraid, and yet stand for what is believed to be right.

May the only paralyzing fear these men know be the fear of believing what is right, and failing to stand firm upon that belief.

In God's strong name we pray, Amen.

Friday, June 9, 1978

Our thanks to Thee, Almighty God, for the recollection of the message of the Psalmist:

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills.
From whence cometh my help?
My help cometh from the Lord who made heaven and earth.
He will not let my foot be moved."

O God, on whatever side of this important social issue each member of this House has planted his or her feet, either by moral pressure or social conviction, grant that each one shall stand unashamed and unafraid. So standing, may each one feel Thy greatness and Thy peace. Amen.

Monday, June 12, 1978

Almighty God, whose love will never let us go and beyond whose constant loving care we cannot drift, may there be found within us that rare, scarce virtue of gratitude.

Gratitude for a week-end renewal and helpful encounter.

Gratitude for return to fellowship with colleagues with whom is shared a common commitment.

Gratitude for Thy undeserved and uncreatable gifts without which there would be no survival.

Gratitude for an evening whose great joys are yet to be sampled.

Gratitude for Thee, the Shepherd of our lives and Restorer of our souls.
Amen.

Tuesday, June 13, 1978

Father of mercies and God of all comfort, our help in ages past our hope for years to come and our source of strength and wisdom for this present hour, we thank Thee for the levity of last night which eased the tensions of the past week and which helped to replace contention with calmness.

As these men and women bring their convictions and minds to other pertinent issues which may unsettle and divide, help them to keep in mind the welfare of the common man and to recall that every common person is an uncommon individual in Thy sight; uncommon enough to be loved despite unloveliness, and uncommon enough to be worthy of your sacrifice for him or her in Christ. Amen.

Wednesday, June 14, 1978

Great God, Creator, Sustainer, Redeemer and Friend, help us to remember that ours are not the only heads in Creation's vast scheme of things. Help us to know and to believe that unless we use our heads to think clearly,

speak kindly but convincingly,
and act bravely,

that we are not much better than cabbage heads or lettuce heads. We pray in the name of Him who, though winter is on our heads, can keep spring within our hearts. Amen.

Thursday, June 15, 1978

O God,

The Light of those who seek Thee,
The Joy of those who find Thee, and the faithful Friend of those who follow Thee, as each member of this House endeavors to do not what is right in his or her own eyes, but that which seems right as seen through eyes of the heart and mind illuminated by Thy Spirit, encourage them by the remembrance of Thy word as spoken through Christ: "Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute and say all manner of evil against you, falsely, for my sake; rejoice and be exceedingly glad for great is your reward in Heaven." Amen.

Friday, June 16, 1978

For the undeserved gift of this bright morning of another new day our thanks are given, O Sovereign God.

As this session may become soon the unretrievable possession of history Thou knowest those who have sought Thy will and tried to follow it, those who have followed their own wills, and those who have been the sullen slaves of the will of others.

May the failures not torment but teach; may the mistakes be education rather than anguish; and may the successes prove to be more complete than partial, and more fruitful than futile.

In Thy strong Name, we pray, Amen.

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which had passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- (1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- (2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.

Poems by Rep. Henry Frye:

The time has come, the Speaker said
to get this Session through,

If we don't get these bills enrolled
we can't adjourn at 2:00,

We want to be ready when the Senate acts
those Lords across the way.

We always act responsibly
regardless of what they say,

We're ready to end this session
and get out of this maize,

We've taken care of business including a little raise.

But when this session is over and we've adjourned in fact,

We know that some of our members will surely not be back.

There's Nancy Chase and Ed Davenport
and also Claude DeBruhl,

Carson Gregory and Jack Gardner who are always very cool.

There's Tommy Baker, Tom Hunter
and also Hector Ray,

And crying Lula Bell Wiseman who can sing your blues away.

From Guilford, there is Charlie Webb
and also Marcus Short,

And Tom Sawyer will also not be around to preach and talk and snort.

There's Dorsey and Edwards
both carrying the back row,

But you'd never guess from that alone which way their votes would go.

Pat Griffin, Clement and W. S. White
and even Robert Jones,

Won't be here the next time to take meat off our bones.

Now Frances Setzer of Catawba
and also Daniel Hall,

Won't be around the next time
to play and have a ball.

There's Wilda Hurst from the County of Onslow who came in '75,

Hunter, Chapin, Baker and Collins
all knew that she was alive.

She kept fine candy on her desk called "chocolate covered ants",

She thought that it was disappearing into the gentlemen's pants.

A fiery lady was Wilda
often quiet and low,

But you never could really tell when she would give it a "bloody go".

Miss Nancy

Some people are loud and boisterous
but not Mrs. Chase,

She is quiet and persistent and never mean or base.

She's not an eloquent speaker
nor a person of great wealth,

But few have made the contributions that she has made to health.

As Chairman of that Committee
she really took her place,

In working for North Carolinians and all the human race.

She always worked for what she believed
and never appeared vain,

This hardworking Representative
the lovely lady from Wayne.

She got some bills passed and quite often had her way,

In spite of male dominance
and in the absence of ERA.

So from one minority to another tho I think it a bit chancy,

I'm throwing a kiss across the room to my friend "Miss Nancy".

Won't be around the next time
 to get, and have a talk There's still time to read the book of Genesis and make a copy of it Humber, V. G. L. Jones and Gifford H. all have the same effect
 The book is a study on the subject of called "The Bible's Message"
 The thought that it was necessary with the "Bible's Message"
 A very interesting/valuable study of the other people's lives
 But you must read with care, for when you read it with a "study" for the purpose of the book, you will see that it is a "study" on the same subject as the book, and in the same but not in the same way
 The subject and the subject of the book
 and the subject of the book
 The book is a study on the subject of
 for a person of study, which but the book is a study on the subject of that the book is a study
 As Chairman of the Committee on the subject of the book in working the book, the book is and all the same
 The book is a study on the subject of the book
 and the subject of the book
 This book is a study on the subject of the book
 the book is a study on the subject of the book
 and the subject of the book
 In the book, the subject of the book is and in the subject of the book
 So from one subject to another, we
 the book is a study on the subject of the book
 I'm thinking of the subject of the book to my mind, this is the book

INDEX GUIDE

Following each bill title, the last action or present status of said bill is indicated. For example, a bill postponed indefinitely will be denoted "P.P.I.", or a bill ratified will be followed by its chapter number in the Session Laws. If the bill remains in committee, the name of the committee is so noted. If the bill has passed the House and has been sent to the Senate, this is indicated by the word "Senate".
